the Point this morning.

among the passengers for Point Isabel this morning.

C. H. Morris, Esq., took a run down the coast to-day.

Mr. Clemente, Martinez and family have gone to Point Isabel for a short stay.

Mr. A. J. Drar, of Point Isabel, was a visitor to the city last evening. He returned this morning.

Capt. Wm. Kelly spent the day on the coast, enjoying the salt air.

Mr. C. H. Forsythe took a run down to the Point this morning.

Miss Olivia Russell, who has been in ill health for some time, left this morning accompanied by her brother, M. M. Russell, for a short trip to different parts of the state. Laredo News.

F. E. Stack, of San Tomas ranch, is in the city today. Mr.
Stack made a pleasant call at our office. He informs us that they have corn up eight inches high, and they are planting a second crop.

for the last year has received notice of his transfer to Milwaukee, and Capt. J. J. Egan came up from the Point last evening. Mr. Egan was interviewed this morning by the Central Relief committee in-regard to the condition of the poor around Point Isabel. He informed the committee that he knew of but one instance in or around the Point where aid is needed, and that is a woman suffering from old age. She is over eighty and is cared for by the good people at the Point.

The Ladies' charitable association, this morning issued supplies to 12 poor people. The ladies acknowledge the receipt of a box of crackers from Misses. Bloomberg & Raphael. Rev. Mr. Fortness accompanied by his wife paid them an appreciated visit while they were engaged in their labors. Misses Carson and Raphael also looked in and left the good ladies the encouragement of the in presence.

We learn that an itinerant tooth-carrier will make a short stay in Brownsville and offers his services to the suffering public.
Of course, we know nothing of the gentleman's skill, but we would suggest that our people remember that home enterprise should claim their patronage, and that Brownville possesses a dentist of undoubted skill. More over, if any work done by our home dentist should prove unsatisfactory, he is always at hand and ready to remedy it, but should that done by your travelling man prove defective, he will be on the wing, and you left with an aching molar, and the hole in your tooth transformed into a vacuity in your pocketbook.

der, and lightning at Ringgold.
Don't know how long it will last though.

EDINBURG. — Raining here and looks like a continuation.

When a child is born the attending physician gets $10, and the local editor if he happens to make a mistake in the date or sex gets a cussing. When a marriage is solemnized the minister gets $5 or $10 and the editor a nickel or two for some extra copies, provided the list of presents is published. When a death occurs the undertaker gets $100 and the editor gets a few more nickels for extra copies. This is a funny world. It seems to be all on one side and the editor seems to be on the wrong side.

TWO LETTERS.
Brownsville, Texas, July 29, '22
To the Ladies' Charitable Aid Society, Brownsville, Texas

Pursuant to the conclusions resulting from a conference I had with you on last Saturday, relative to proposed relief for drought sufferers, and in response to your kind offer to receive such donations as may be sent to this county, store and disburse them through a committee of gentlemen of your own selection, I beg to respectfully refer you to an appeal for relief, signed by most of our best citizens which was published in The Daily Cosmopolitan under date of July 27th. It is confidently hoped and expected, that the said appeal will be liberally responded to, and by its terms the donations will naturally be forwarded to you. In this connection I will also call your attention to a meeting of our citizens at the Court House on Wednesday night, the proceedings of which meeting appear in our daily papers of yesterday to which I refer you, particularly the Relief Committee then and there selected composed of the following named gentlemen:
Mr. G. M. Raphael, F. Yturria, Casimiro Tamayo, Robert Dallzel, Eunlio Kleiber, F. San Roman

Pursuant to your proposed arrangement of turning over such supplies to a committee of gentlemen for distribution, I recommend that you select the above committee, thus concentrating the entire distribution with them, which course will naturally save any confusion in the premises, and will, I believe, result more effectively for the purposes intended than any other course you could pursue.

In presuming to make this suggestion I do so only in conformity with my understanding of our above referred to conference and I do not wish to be understood as trying to influence you in the exercise of your self imposed duties, either one way or the other.

Very respectfully,
SAM P. WRELFORD.

Samuel P. Welford, Esq.

Brownsville, Texas July 30, '22
SIR:—In reply to your communication of yesterday, we beg to say that to the best recollection of the undersigned, the only members of the L. C. A. Society present at the interview referred to last Saturday, is that we agreed to receive and store in our ample warehouse any thing that may be addressed to our care for the poor. It was distinctly stipulated that we should have nothing to do with the distribution of donations in the county, as it was quite apparent to all of us that it was beyond our scope and ability to do the matter justice.

Far from agreeing to disburse the donation to be sent us, we beg to recall to your memory our aversion to assume the responsibility, and we suggestion that it was properly the province of the authorities or of the citizens to appoint a suitable committee who should take entire charge of the promised contributions; as before said our tender was limited to the use of our warehouse for the storing of articles for distribution.

We regret that a wrong impression should have been created in the minds of many supporters of association that we had given color to the reports of our undertaking that which we are unable to do.

The action of the citizens meeting in appointing a suitable committee to receive and distribute donations to the drought sufferers cannot but meet the approval of all right minded and charitable persons and we will cheerfully turn over to them all that we may receive other than there regular donations for the poor of the city, feeling assured that the best interest of the county poor will be faithfully attended to by those who merited the appointment at the hands of their fellow citizens.

Respectfully,

EUGENIE R. RAPHAEL,
FELICITAS YTURRIA,
ISABEL YTURRIA,
JUANA YZNAGA,
AMETTE NATASON.
